SEDALIA, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1893.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

SENT TO JOHNSON.

A CHANGE OF VENUE IN THE BANKS MURDER CASE.

THE DONOHUE RAPE CASE.

It was continued until November —Disposal of the David
Fitz Case.

The Chas. Banks murder case will not be tried in Sedalia. This was decided by Judge Ryland in the criminal court this morning, when he granted the application of the defense for a change of venue and sent the case to Johnson county, where the next term of court convenes the first Monday of next month.

A special panel of fifty had been ordered by the court, returnable this morning, from which to select a jury, but the venire was discharged when the change of venue was granted.

Banks, it will be remembered, is a colored man who killed Ike Palmer, also colored, in the West Main street negro pool dive last fall. Whitsett Hammer are defendant's attorneys. Last Friday they made application for a continuance, on the ground of the absence of a material witness, but the application was overruled. It was then that they made application for a change of venue, the defendant and two of his friends, Andy Vaughn and Amos Harris, making affidavit that they believed it impossible to obtain a fair trial in Pettis county.

County Attorney Hoffman objected strenuously to the change, but the court stated that under the law it was a very easy matter for the defense to have the case sent to another county, and the above order was made accordingly.

Donohue Rape Case.

The Donohue rape case will not be tried at this term of court, either, the state having secured a continuance to-day until the November term.

The defendant, Tim Donohue, is a young railroader who, more than a year ago, is charged with having criminally assaulted Amelia Mueser, a young German girl, whom he had taken out for an evening promenade.

When the case was called this morning County Attorney Hoffman stated that a subpoena had been sent to Kansas City for one of the state's most material witnesses, but no return had been made as yet, and in consequence he was not prepared to go to trial. On this showing the continuance was granted, and the state's witnesses were recognized to appear on the first Monday of the November term.

The Assault Case.

The case of the state vs. David Fitz, a crippled white man, charged with having feloniously assaulted a colored woman with his crutch, was disposed of this morning, the defendant withdrawing his plea of not guilty and entering a plea of guilty. The defendant's interests were looked after by Lawyers Sangree and Cashman, who asked that the mercy of the court be extended to the defendant. A fine of $100 was assessed, but on application of defendant's attorneys it was commuted to thirty days' imprisonment in jail, regardless of costs.

Other Cases.

Other proceedings were had to-day, as follows:

State vs. John B. Miller, violation of the local option law in Johnson county, and brought here on a change of venue; plea of not guilty withdrawn; motion filed to quash the indictment; motion overruled; case dismissed and defendant enters of guilty to selling liquor without a license; fine of $75 and costs assessed.

Two gambling cases were called and continued until Thursday.

State vs. J. C. Parmelee, renting house for an immoral purpose, motion to quash the indictment; case taken up and argued; motion to quash sustained.

Jap Marquis, convicted of petit larceny, and Fred Julius, convicted of disturbing the peace, were released from jail under the insolvent act, after which court adjourned until 1:30 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session Tim

Donohue, charged with rape, was recognized in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at the November term.

The regular panel of jurors was discharged until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

In the two cases against Thomas and Wm. Woodward, charged with the larceny of sheep from two farmers of the county, Lawyer Steele filed an application for a change of venue, on the ground that great prejudice exists against the accused in Pettis county. Change granted and case sent to Johnson county.

State vs. Arthur Haggerty, petit larceny; plea of guilty entered and fine of $25 and costs assessed.

Indictments Returned.

At 2:15 o'clock the grand jury came into court and reported true bills against Otto Gehring, charged with assault with intent to ravish; Grant Powell, for forgery; Wm. E. Atchison, for burglary and larceny, and John Witcher, for murder in the killing of Edward Dirke last fall. One other indictment was returned, but the accused has not yet been arrested.

Frank Dikie, charged with defrauding Mrs. Lyon out of $300, and whose trial last week resulted in a hung jury, was recognized in $500 for his appearance at the next term of court.

NEARLY HUNG HIM.

JOHN HUDSON'S NARROW ESCAPE.

WILD SCENES AT SALINA.

Mrs. Frost's Assailant Dragged
From the Jail by a Mob—Rescued in Time.

SALINA, Kan., April 11.—John Hudson, the negro arrested for the assault upon Mrs. J. M. Frost, was taken from the jail by a mob last night and but for the interference of citizens would have been hanged.

The mob organized and marched to the jail where a fight took place with the deputies. Several men were wounded by accidental pistol shots and Policeman Meyers was knocked down with a club. The guards made a strong resistance, but were overpowered.

With a bar of railroad iron the door to the jail was battered in. The crowd quickly followed. A rope was placed around Hudson's neck and he was dragged out and up the street. A crowd of 1,000 men followed, some of them shouting, "Hang the nigger!"

Mrs. Frost being at the National hotel, he was taken before her and she positively identified him as the guilty man. The mob, which until now had been reasonably orderly, was turned into a crowd of lawless men thirsting for human gore. The negro was given an opportunity to talk, during which he said he was innocent of the crime and begged to be given a fair trial.

The better class of citizens then took a hand, and the negro was rushed into the hallway, where the angry mob was kept back.

F. F. Garver addressed the crowd, imploring the men not to act hastily, as there was an element of doubt as to the guilt of the prisoner. During this time the unfortunate man was hauled up and down the street in attempting to hang him up to a telephone pole. Mayor Cravens appeared on the scene and demanded that the crowd disperse. The negro is safely guarded for to-night. In justice to the citizens of Salina it should be known that the members of the mob were from adjoining towns.

Died of Spinal Meningitis.

An infant child, aged two months, of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, living on Walnut street, died this morning at 6 o'clock of spinal meningitis. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 8 o'clock from the German Catholic church.

Real Estate Going Up.

The real estate firms are holding their prices up for spring, and some good property has been sold at quite an advance. The firm of Woodfin & Thatcher say they will not advance the prices for about thirty days on any of their properties. Parties who wish good properties or houses in any part of the city, had better call on them. They write fire insurance, best companies, loan money, buy and sell real estate.—314 Ohio street.

Strange Conduct Upon the Part of John B. Murphy.

Ex-Policeman John B. Murphy is absent from the city, and his family and friends are not a little worried in consequence. Johnny has been out of employment for some time past, and as a result became quite despondent. His domestic relations were pleasant, but he conceived the idea that certain people "had it in for him,"—as he expressed it,—for which reason he desired to change his place of residence.

Last Saturday he addressed a note to his wife, telling her that he had determined to leave Sedalia, and would take the first train for Kansas City, where a position awaited him. This note he gave to a friend to deliver to Mrs. Murphy, but he did not take the first train for the Kaw's mouth, as the note to his wife led her to infer that he would.

Sunday morning Johnny was seen walking along the Missouri Pacific track east of the city, evidently in deep meditation, as an approaching locomotive had to give two or three sharp signals of danger before the ex-policeman stepped out of harm's way. Sunday night Johnny was seen at Chamois, and the supposition is that he was headed for St. Louis.

When these facts were imparted to Mrs. Murphy she determined to follow on her husband's trail, and accordingly left for the Future Great yesterday, accompanied by a gentleman friend of Mr. Murphy's.

There is no young man in Sedalia who has a larger circle of friends than Johnny Murphy, and many of them would have been glad to assist him in every way possible had they known that the fact that he was unemployed was worrying him to the extent that it did.

Fractured His Shoulder.

Eugene Gibson, of Lamonte, was in town to-day with his right arm suspended in a sling. "Gene" was riding an unbroken horse yesterday when the animal began bucking, and accidentally fell. "Gene" was pitched forward and fractured his right shoulder but dislikes to think that he was thrown from a horse.

IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS.

First Steps in the Trial of the President and Post Nebraska Officials.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 11.—The preliminary steps in the impeachment trial of three of Nebraska's present and three of her ex-state officials were taken in the supreme court yesterday afternoon. Each of the six defendants was represented by an imposing array of counsel. The attorneys for ex-State Treasurer Hill and ex-Auditor Benton objected to the proceedings, claiming that their clients, not being officers of the State at present, could not be impeached. It was also intimated that each would demand a separate trial. Counsel for ex-Attorney General Leese waived all objection to jurisdiction and announced that, with the attorney for Humphrey, Hastings and Allen, they would be ready to answer by a week from Friday. A number of technical points were raised on behalf of several of the defendants, but were overruled by the court.

After some further discussion the court issued a rule requiring the attorneys for Hill and Benton to fill their pleas in abatement by Monday next, hearing to be had on the Friday following. Leese will answer by next Monday and the others in two weeks from to-day. The hearing of the cases on their merits will occur three weeks from to-day. The local District Court has called a session of the Grand Case Discharged.

Emanuel Givens, colored, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, a pistol, was discharged in the court of Justice A. D. Fisher to-day. The evidence was insufficient for conviction.

The Dog Went, Too.

Frank Daniels and his pretty girls and "the bull dog that got squeezed" went to Moberly this morning where they will give a performance to-night.

In ancient times, the Hebrews seem to have made copious use of butter as food; but the Greeks and the Romans used it only as an ointment in their baths, and it is probable that the Greeks obtained their knowledge of the substance from the Scythians and Phrygians, whilst the Romans obtained it from Germany. At the present time in Italy, Spain and Portugal it is sold by apothecaries as a medicinal agent for external application.

WE are selling the splendid butter made by the New Creamery Co. of Cole Camp, and it cannot be excelled.

RELIABLE AND NEWSY!

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

LET no illegal voter escape! Punish the whole batch.

Does Brother Emerson condemn the act of pardoning prisoners from the calaboose on election day sometimes, or all the time?

THE Kansas democrats should not permit themselves to be divided by the question of fusion. There may come a time when even Kansas democrats can stand up and be counted.

THE DEMOCRAT is in favor of a rigid enforcement of the election laws. If any man voted illegally at the late election let him be punished. If any man violated the law in any other respect let him be punished likewise.

THE United States courts are enacting a great deal of "law" this spring in the settlement of disputes between labor and capital, and are incidentally teaching nationalism faster than Bellamy ever dreamed of. Many of these decisions will yet rise up to plague the parties in whose interests they are made.

THE strike of the union workmen at the World's Fair grounds was happily of short duration. The worst enemies the working people have are some of their own reckless leaders. There must be good grounds for complaint before any strike can be successful, and the wise leaders will discountenance them except for gravest causes.

THERE will be few who will doubt the wisdom or justice of the verdict of the jury in the case of Dick Robinson. His guilt was clear and there were none of the mitigating circumstances which appeal to the human heart for pity toward an erring mortal. The offense was such as could only be properly punished by the death of the offender.

THE DEMOCRAT has heard it rumored that there were five or six negroes who voted illegally for the republican candidate in the first ward. We cannot vouch for the truth of the charge. But surely in investigating the election frauds Brother Emerson must have come across some trace of this violation of law, but he has not said anything about it.

SUPPOSE it should transpire, as is intimated, that there were several illegal votes cast for the republican candidate in the First ward, would that fact warrant the charge that Mr.
Ilgenfritz had been a party to the crime? Not a bit of it; and for one, this paper would scorn to be guilty of charging a reputable citizen with crime upon no better evidence than the statement of a notorious negro jail bird.

THERE seems to be no end to the devices to teach children to save their pennies. This may be well enough in a way. But there is another view of this matter taken by many thoughtful people, says the Kansas City Times, and it is well worth considering, as it bears upon the very pertinent question: We hear from infancy that it is more blessed to give than to receive.
May it not sometimes be more blessed for a child to expend a penny in some act of benevolence than to quickly thrust it into a strong box? There seldom has been a soulless miser who could not tell how early he began to save and how his motto through life had been to put every spare dollar into the bank but never to take a dollar out. Most of those without souls still cherish the iron box of childhood which could not be opened without breaking, however urgent the call of humanity. It should not be forgotten that saving is a virtue which should be wisely regulated.

THE negro John Hudson, who is charged with having committed a most fiendish assault upon Mrs.
Frost, was nearly lynched at Salina, Kansas, last night. That the mob failed in its work was no fault of the indignant men who composed it, for they were wild with indignation at the story of the brutal assault. It should be borne in mind, too, that this mob was not at work
"away down south," but actually in Kansas. It shows that such crimes are regarded with as much horror and indignation in one section as in another, and that there is no politics in such outbreaks.

If Brother Emerson is going to hold Mayor Stevens responsible for all the illegal votes cast for the democratic nominees, who is he going to hold responsible for those cast for the republican ticket? THE DEMOCRAT understands that there were quite a number of illegal votes cast for the republican candidates.
Whether this is true or false only a jury can determine, but when a great moral newspaper goes about performing the duties of a grand jury it should hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may.

THE United States supreme court, when it comes to reviewing the decisions of the inferior courts which have assumed the despotic power of condemning men to involuntary servitude in the interest of "interstate commerce," should bear in mind that in this country every man is entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and, as necessary to the exercise of that right, should enjoy the privilege of choosing his own avocation.

A KANSAS CITY preacher, says the Star, having announced from his pulpit that the Lord is not responsible for the cholera, lazy people who make a belief in fate an excuse to live in slovenly filth should look above and stand under. Suicide by avoidance is as bad as suicide by act. A man who avoids the bath tub or the swimming hole these days is as bad as the man who stands on the curve of a railroad track.

It is strange that Brother Emerson bases all his charges of illegal voting upon the testimony of negroes who are either in jail or else who run whenever they see an officer. While the DEMOCRAT strongly sympathizes with all efforts to purify the ballot, we are afraid Brother Emerson and Umbles will find it difficult to even secure an indictment of Mayor Stevens upon the character of evidence produced so far.

HON. JOHN T. HEARD is expected home to-night or to-morrow. He has had a hard winter's work and has some arduous labors before him this summer, but none who know him will doubt for a moment that that labor will be conscientiously and intelligently performed. He has made a faithful representative in the past and will be equally faithful in his future actions.

THE water supply of New York City is being looked after, and whole towns are being destroyed, lest their drainage should contaminate the water. Too much care cannot be taken to secure pure water, and even after the greatest precautions are taken, physicians advise that drinking water be boiled.

SEDALIA is a prosperous, well-governed city, notwithstanding some bad breaks that are occasionally made by some of our sensational journalists. Capitalists have every reason for confidence in the city's future and they will find excellent opportunities for investment.

THE Gazette is determined to punish violators of the election law and Charley Umbles is going to help in the reform even if he goes to the penitentiary for it.

The Play Last Night.

Frank Daniels and a bright company of players packed Wood's opera house last night with one of the largest audiences of the season.
"Dr. Cupid" was the bill and presented many intensely funny situations. It is not so good as "Little Puck," but nevertheless gives opportunity for the quips and cranks and wanton wiles of Daniels. Bessie Sanson with her bright face was pleasantly remembered. The young ladies of the company are all pretty and sparkle with vivacity and fun.

"A Breezy Time."

At the opera house Thursday, April 13. The following is what a Philadelphia paper says of it:
"Despite the inclemency of the weather, the Empire theatre was well filled last night, the attraction being Fitz and Webster and their merry company in 'A Breezy Time.' This piece is one of the best farce comedies now on the stage, and never fails to attract large audiences. It is replete with catchy music and entertaining varieties. The selections on various musical instruments by E. B. Fitz and Kathryn Webster were vociferously applauded, as also was the serpentine dance by Miss Orient Anson. The remaining members of the company understood their parts perfectly."—Philadelphia Evening Star, Nov. 29, 1892.

Si Plunkard.

J. C. Lewis, the original "Si Plunkard" in his hay seed get up, gave a long-to-be-remembered entertainment at the Grand opera house last night to a crowded house and the best of the season.
The performance was well put on,
and the Dutch comedian brought down the house every time he opened his mouth. Si Plunkard, with his original sayings and far-meretic blunders, made the windows rattle with laughter. The play is well written and deserves full patronage wherever it is given. Mrs.
Lewis, in the character of the country maiden, brought forth much comment as a stage beauty, and her graceful acting. Si, we'll not forget you.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

THE OLIVER MURDERERS.

People Indignant at the Release of Henry and Lynching Threatened.

LOUISVILLE, KY., April 11.—A dispatch from Henderson says the people of Union county have become indignant at the release from custody of Geo. Henry, one of the suspects in the Oliver tragedy, and adds that a lynching, yesterday thought improbable, may occur.
It develops that the confession of
Will Holt fails to corroborate Lewis Land's in several particulars.
It is charged by some that Henry planned the whole attack. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver both declare they recognize Geo. Henry as one of the party responsible for Abbie Oliver's death. Land states that his confession was not made from remorse, but from fear that some of the other accused intended to confess.
He says his fears were based on the fact that Will Holt the day before the latter's arrest asked Land to leave. Land says in thinking over this he concluded that his confederates wished him to fly that they might fasten the guilt upon him.
Land admits that he fired the first gun, but says he fired it in the air.

Greatly Surprised.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H.

LYNCHING THREATENED.

Great Excitement Over an Assault
on a Child at Raymond, Ill.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., April 11.—A great sensation was produced here yesterday by the arraignment of Chas. Peck of Raymond, a town 11 miles north of this city, in justice court on the charge of rape upon Winnie Jones, the little 8-year-old daughter of Al Jones, a carriage maker of that place. Peck was given a preliminary hearing here on change of venue from Raymond and bound over to await the action of the grand jury, the amount of the bond being fixed at $1,000. Peck is a man of about 35 years of age, with an unsavory reputation. The crime was committed on last Tuesday, but by threats that he would kill her the villain succeeded in inducing the child for this length of time to say nothing to her parents concerning the outrage, but the mother made the discovery from the child's clothing. People from Raymond say that Peck will be lynched if he gets home to-night.
An angry crowd followed him to the depot this afternoon as he was leaving Raymond for a preliminary hearing at this place.

A COUPLE OF "CONS."

Genial Pat Boughan Remembered by His Friends.

Conductor M. V. Burnap, who returned Sunday from a trip to Texas and Mexico, accompanied by his wife and two children, says that both his wife and himself are now satisfied that there is no place like Sedalia.

While absent Mr. Burnap met Pat Boughan, a former well-known railroad man of Sedalia, who is now running out of Great Bend, Kansas, and regarding whom the Great Bend News, an afternoon sheet about as large as one's hand, says: "Pat Boughan, the genial conductor on the P., B. & M. road, was 46 years old yesterday. Last evening, while sitting in his parlor at home, who should come in and take possession but a dozen of his gentlemen friends."

"Pat had been a passenger conductor too long to let this throw him off of the track, so he attended to his guests with the same dexterity that he manages his train."

"But when D. N. Heizer, in his pleasing style, presented Pat, on behalf of the crowd, with an elegant gold-headed cane, as a slight token of their esteem, he was like he would be in a smash-up—didn't know what to say. He could only smile his thanks."

"These ceremonies ended, a royal good time was the order of the evening. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs. Diefenbacher, Schermerhorn, Beye, Heizer, Moses, Allen, Shaw, Laidlaw, Father Kelley, George Spencer and John Lightbody."

Special Council Meeting.

A special meeting of the city council was held yesterday afternoon to pass upon the report of the city engineer regarding the paving of the alley between Fifth and Sixth streets and Ohio and Lamine streets. The report was accepted and tax bills ordered issued in favor of Simpson & Meier, the contractors.

GUILTY OF MURDER

IN THE FIRST DEGREE IN THE ROBINSON CASE.

ONLY ONE BALLOT TAKEN.

The Jury Was Out Only Forty-Seven Minutes Before Returning a Verdict.

HAS ALL YET BEEN TOLD?

Was Not Another Than Robinson the Father of the Unborn Child?

Guilty of murder in the first degree, as charged in the indictment, was the verdict returned in the Dick Robinson case at 9:20 o'clock last night, after the jury had been out forty-seven minutes.

Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, the court room was filled with spectators when the jury filed into the court room, and it is doubtful if there was a single individual present who had not anticipated the verdict, being forced thereto by the strong case made out by the state.

Robinson sat by the side of his attorney, apparently as indifferent as he had been throughout the trial, and even when the words, "guilty of murder in the first degree," were read, he gave very little evidence of nervousness.

Contrary to the usual custom, the jury was not polled after the verdict was announced, and a few minutes later the defendant was escorted to jail by Deputy Sheriff Ramsey, there to remain until he is sentenced on the last day of the term.

The Arguments.

When the DEMOCRAT went to press yesterday afternoon County Attorney Hoffman was making the opening argument for the state. He spoke most earnestly for an hour and twenty minutes, reviewing the case thoroughly, and making the most possible out of the circumstantial evidence that had been brought out during the trial. It was a highly creditable effort, and Mr. Hoffman was warmly congratulated at the conclusion.

Daniel E. Kennedy followed Mr. Hoffman, and for two and one-quarter hours held the rapt attention of the jury and spectators. Mr. Kennedy is a young man who has not had large criminal practice; but, considering the desperation of his case, he made the best possible showing for his client. No attorney ever worked harder or more conscientiously for a man whose life was in the balance than did Mr. Kennedy, and that the verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was returned was no fault of his, the universal opinion being that the ablest criminal lawyer in the land could not have saved the accused. At 6:15 o'clock court took a recess until 7:30 o'clock.

When court reconvened at the latter hour there was another large crowd present to hear the concluding argument of Mr. Hoffman. He spoke one hour, and if there was a point overlooked in his opening argument it was carefully looked after in the closing one. The case was then given to the jury, and, as stated above, a verdict was returned in forty-seven minutes that will cause Robinson to pay the penalty of his crime upon the gallows.

Will Dick Weaken?

A question that is of interest just now is, "Will Robinson make a second confession, giving all the facts that lead up to the killing?" Many of those who know him best believe that he will. Dr. Dresel, one of the witnesses for the state during the trial, said to a DEMOCRAT reporter this morning:

"It has always been my opinion that Robinson outraged the girl and then killed her to prevent her making the crime public. I am not one of those who believe that Dick had ever sustained criminal relations with Miss Schollman, and, if I am correct, then of course he was not the father of her unborn child."

Another gentleman who has given the matter close investigation, but who does not care to figure in the public prints, said this morning that it was his belief that an old lover of Miss Schollman, who is now in a distant city, was the father of the unborn child. This lover cast Johanna aside and then became engaged to a young lady of Sedalia. Johanna ascertained the fact and determined to prevent the marriage if possible. With this object in view she called upon the lady who had supplanted her in the affections of the young man and told her how she had first been wronged a few years ago, under the promise of marriage, by the individual in question.

The denouement was a surprise to the betrothed girl, but she determined to investigate the matter, and hence wrote to her affianced, informing him of all she had learned.

The result was that the young man came to Sedalia to set himself right with the woman of his choice, and while here he called upon Miss Schollman and had a protracted interview with her. This was about three months before the girl was murdered, and it is the belief of the DEMOCRAT's informant that it was on the occasion of this visit that Johanna fell a second time, and that the old lover, and not Dick Robinson, was the father of the unborn child.

COME WALK ON OUR NEW SIDE-WALK TO-DAY.

"Where is there such another store as Hail's," a person asked another yesterday. Such assembling of traders. The activity of the place charms and inspires. Prosac business methods could not have created a place like this, and prosy methods shall never enter into it while business wit endures.

Have you a cape thought? Where is the woman without a cape leaning—a cape sigh? Not in Sedalia. The prices on the remaining few garments in this stock have stirred a price breeze that'll shift the little lot away as the blizzard shifts the little snow-hills from spot to spot.

Our Dress Goods stock has been the marvel of all comers. Over Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars worth of Dress Materials passed over our counter in this department alone yesterday.

The spread of Novelties is beautiful. The offering includes the most thought-of things of the season.

Death of Miss Vilas.

News has been received in this city of the death of Miss Nellie Vilas, daughter of ex-Senator Vilas, of Madison, Wis., who is well known by a number in this city. She was the guest of Mrs. Fred Guenther, her old schoolmate, about a year ago and while here was much admired for her charming ways and her many accomplishments. She was visiting a cousin in New York when her illness first began. She determined to reach her home but death overtook her before she came to the end of her journey. She was about 24 years of age. Her father recently sailed from Tampa, Fla., on a fishing expedition and the family has been unable to communicate with him.

A Surprise Party.

The hospitable home of City Collector V. P. Hart, on South Ohio street, was the scene of a happy event last Saturday evening. About seventy-five friends quietly assembled to surprise Mrs. Hart, this being her birthday. She was absent from home when the guests arrived and had no intimation of their coming until she found them in full possession of the house. Mrs. Hart was presented with a beautiful Oxford Bible as a testimonial of the high regard in which she is held by those who know her. Refreshments were served, and it was not until a late hour that the guests dispersed, each wishing their estimable hostess many happy birthdays for the future.

A Family of Players.

Rob Johns, son of S. P. Johns, and who is attending school at Crawfordsville, Ind., gives promise of laying both of his brothers, Mint and Sam, in the shade as a base ball player. Rob is a member of the Crawfordsville college team that visited Champaign, Ill., last Saturday and played a game with the college team of that city. The Hoosier lads were defeated, but the St. Louis papers, in referring to the game, made special mention of the third base work of Johns, which is said to have been remarkably fine for an amateur.

Chief Officers Elected.

The Republican Flambeau club at their meeting last night held in their hall on West Fifth street elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Captain—J. M. Glenn.
First lieutenant—W. H. Ramsey.
Second lieutenant—W. J. Kelk.
Recording secretary—W. O. B. Dixon.
Financial secretary—W. T. Tewmeyer.

WITH CONTEMPT.MAYOR STEVENS NOT AT ALL ALARMED.*He Will Not Dignify Charlie Umbles and the "Gazette" With His Notice.

A DEMOCRAT reporter met Mayor Stevens at the city hall this morning and incidentally asked him if he intended to make any statement in regard to the charges made against him by the Gazette and Charles Umbles.

"No, sir," said the mayor, "I have no public statement to make in regard to anything the Gazette has to say about me. After having for so long been the victim of that paper's hate, abuse and vilification, I have no reason and see no occasion to defend myself from its malignant attacks. The paper and those who manipulate it would have sent me to hades long ago if it had possessed the power, but I have always noticed that as the Gazette has been most bitter and vituperative toward me, in that proportion have the people of Sedalia rallied around me. This has been the case so often that I have cause to expect only abuse and vilification from the paper and have come to regard it and its attacks with contempt.

"The people of Sedalia, who have known me so long—the business men, republicans and democrats, with whom I am in daily contact—know whether I am the character of man to barter pardons for votes, whether I would be fool enough or criminal enough to induce Umbles to vote illegally.

"Many of the people of Sedalia are my friends and give me credit with some degree of integrity; even my enemies have not accused me of absolute idiocy. This being the case it is not necessary for me to make any defense to charges coming from the Gazette and backed by the statement of Charles Umbles. Such charges, coming from a paper that has constantly hounded me with its Dildine Dreams and similar filth, I can well afford to treat with scorn and contempt.

"I am more than willing that any evidence bearing upon my official acts shall be submitted to the grand jury and let twelve unprejudiced men say if I am a criminal.

"In the meantime, while I have nothing but contempt for the dirty work of my enemies, I hold myself ready to give a complete explanation of any and all of my acts to any citizen who will come to me personally and ask it.

"No, I have something better to do than to 'defend' myself from the attacks of a paper that has so long been lost to all sense of shame and decency in its insane hatred of me and its consuming desire to break down my character in Sedalia."

Will Ask for a New Trial.

Lawyer Kennedy will ask for a new trial for his client, Dick Robinson, and believes that the same will be accorded the prisoner.

Robinson was seen to-day and stated that the verdict of guilty in the first degree was no surprise to him—in fact, he expected it. He does not appear in the least downcast over the result of the trial, but believes that he will be given a new trial and possibly secure an acquittal.

First Baptist Church Revival.

Rev. S. M. Brown, of Kansas City, will conduct the revival exercises at the First Baptist church to-night. He is a distinguished divine and is pastor of the Tabernacle church in Kansas City. He is also a writer of great ability, his "Missouri for Jesus" ranking very high as evangelistic literature.

The meetings at the First Baptist church are nightly increasing in effectiveness and power. Rev. J. B. Fuller is a man of wonderful power.

Jefferson Davis Remains

RICHMOND, Va., April 11.—The executive committee of Lee camp, in charge of the arrangements for the removal of the remains of Jefferson Davis to this city, has completed the details of the programme. The cortege will leave New Orleans May 22 and will reach this city on the evening of the 28th. The casket will be borne to the state capital, which will be appropriately decorated.

Looking Over the Work.

G. W. Daniels, superintendent of the Missouri and Kansas Telephone company, was in the city to-day inspecting the improvements now being made in this city. An entirely new lot of material is being put in.

Will Lecture at Columbia.

Prof. A. J. Smith went to Columbia this morning where he has been invited to deliver a series of four lectures before the school of pedagogy at the state university.

The lectures will begin to-morrow and will bear upon the system of graded schools. Columbia is desirous of improving her public schools and sent a committee to inspect the different schools of the state. Sedalia has been honored to the extent that their superintendent has been asked to explain their workings. A higher compliment to both Prof. Smith and Sedalia could not have been paid.

May Have Been Injured.

Mrs. Sallie Satterwhite, a widow aged 30 years, died yesterday morning at her home four miles north-east of Green Ridge. The exact cause of Mrs. Satterwhite's death is unknown. On last Saturday she violently exerted herself while putting down carpets. Shortly afterwards she was seized in the stomach with intense pains which continued up to the time of her death. She leaves a family of several children. The funeral will take place at 12 o'clock to-morrow.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Neil O'Gara, of West Seventh street, and who has been dangerously ill for several days past, is reported some better to-day.

Dr. S. M. Brown, of Kansas City, arrived in the city at noon to-day and will preach at the First Baptist church to-night, as well as every night this week.

Thad Hatcher went to Nevada this morning and is supplying the merchants of that city with fine herbardashers supplies. Thad is deservedly one of the most popular salesmen on the road.

Miss Kate Givens, who has for the past four months been one of the most popular clerks in J. D. Hail & Co.'s dry goods emporium, has been compelled to resign her position on account of ill health. Miss Givens left for her home in Clinton yesterday, taking with her the best wishes of the host of friends she has made during her sojourn in Sedalia.

AND THE CROW DEPARTED.

How a Rat Was Caught While Attempting to Steal.

"One can always laugh at the person who attempts to convert to his own use the property of others and suddenly finds himself trapped," said a farmer. "Probably the laugh comes a little more heartily when it is an animal. Not long ago I possessed a fine crow that I kept in a cage outside my door. I was particularly proud of this bird, for it seemed to have good sound sense and did many queer things. One morning I placed my bird out as usual and thought no more of it. That evening when I came to bring it in, I found instead a rat in my cage, and the door closed as usual.

Then I began to wonder. First I thought that someone had played a trick on me—had stolen my crow and left me a rat. I noticed though, with what ease the door slipped up and down, and then I thought that perhaps the rat had nosed it up, and going in had eaten my crow. With me the crow was safe, for I never had any political aspirations that might be blighted. Then I thought of my crow's game propensities and I argued that it was a trick. Shortly afterward a neighbor of mine brought my crow home. It had been flying about in an aimless, friendly manner, and he had caught it. I am of the impression now that the rat lifted the door to get in and eat the birdseed, and that my crow took the opportunity of an open door to walk out."

BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS.

Armory Hall Brilliant With Flags and Bunting—The Rifles Ball.

Armory hall to-day is undergoing marvelous transformation for the third anniversary of the Sedalia Rifles, company D, second regiment, N. G. M., which takes place to-morrow evening. The walls are covered with red, white and blue flags and bunting, displayed in great profusion. Flags of different nations are also tastefully arranged. The rifle case has been specially decorated, while on the wall on either side are two rifles crossed, with a knapsack suspended above. In the center of the ceiling is a magnificent umbrella twenty-five feet in diameter, beneath which can be seen the four flags of the new signal corps drill. On either side of the hall is a pretty pagoda covered with brilliantly colored bunting. A parlor has been specially provided for the occasion and is fitted up with elegant furniture. The band stand has been made very attractive. On the south side of it is a soldiers' tent embowered amidst green pine trees. On the other side is a landscape of rugged hills covered with snow. A fountain throws up a stream of water that glistens and sparkles in the light of the incandescents above.

A more beautifully decorated hall has never before been seen in Sedalia. The gentlemen composing the Rifles never do anything by halves and they are sparing no expense to have everything in readiness for the pleasurable entertainment of their guests. A large crowd should be present. The famous Sedalia Military band will furnish the music. Its excellent repertoire and ability are so well known that commendation is unnecessary.

Has Gone to New York.

Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of Calvary Episcopal church, departed on the noon train for New York City where he has been honored by an urgent invitation from Rev. Dr. Rainsford, of St. George church, to assist in mission revivals during the next two weeks. During his absence, the pulpit of Rev. Allen will be filled by Rev. F. E. Alleyne, of the diocese of Missouri.
